

SCHOOL RULES

SCHOOL REGULATIONS

Laws and rules form part of a set of regulations in force which aim to achieve a disciplined environment securing the rights of the individual and the safety of property. Pupils are expected to obey instructions given by Staff or Sixth Formers. Pupils are expected to follow the Code of Conduct and to obey the School rules. Departments may have their own regulations and these can be found on display in the relevant classrooms.

THE LAW

The law of the land applies at Pitsford School as it does elsewhere. There are certain things which are forbidden because they are against the law. These include:-

- Truancy
- Leaving Litter
- Damage to Property
- Illegal substances
- Assault and Physical violence
- Threatening Behaviour
- Sexist and Racist Behaviour
- Anti-social Behaviour as above on line
